DESCRIPTION

Metal and wood are a bold but timeless combination of the beauty of nature and austerity. In the case of lamps, it is reflected in the TAYLOR collection. Luminaires from this line combine the hardness of metal and the naturalness of wood. The collection consists of classic hanging lamps with a metal shade that has been enriched with a wooden element.

Lighting from this line will find its place in a space dominated by wood in light shades. The lamp can be hung on its own at a small table. However, with a larger tabletop, it is worth trying two or even three fixtures that will better illuminate the dining room space.

The TAYLOR line is covered by a 24-month manufacturer's warranty.
