DESCRIPTION

The MARSHALL lamp collection - the subtle charm of nature

The new MARSHALL lamp family, designed by the Polish brand MiLAGRO, is a perfect proposition for lovers of interior inspired by nature. The collection includes as many as 10 different models, including a round pendant lamp, three round and three square ceiling lamps, wall lamps, a study and a floor lamp. They all have rattan lampshades, white bases and elegant golden accents.

Simple, minimalist lamps with shades covered with rattan will perfectly match the atmosphere of rooms decorated in the Scandinavian, rustic or classic spirit. They will perfectly harmonize with light wood furniture, walls in earth colors and natural accessories: woolen blankets, linen bedding or cotton curtains. The variety of models of lamps from the MARSHALL collection means that you can easily choose the perfect solution for your interior or compose a coherent design of the entire lighting in the room. Wall lamps and a floor lamp with an additional, small light source on a separate arm are particularly interesting proposals, which will be useful during the evening reading in bed or in the reading corner.
